

HIGHLIGHTS

Business and political consultant, world-class networker, host of Impact webinar series, keynote speaker dedicated to showing others how to easily create meaningful, purpose-driven connections.

SHORT BIO

Derek Dickow connects people with opportunity.

Derek is a world-class networker known for facilitating high-potential introductions. He is a passionate fundraiser, raising millions of dollars for people, projects, political campaigns and charities he's passionate about.

Today, Derek serves as the founder and president of Steward Media, an event management, fundraising, and political relations firm promoting best-in-class people, organizations and events. Clients include elected leaders, CEOs and some of the most innovative thinkers.

Derek is a highly sought-after professional keynote speaker, sharing his expertise on power connections and his "5 Pillars of Purpose-Driven Networking." Derek serves on several boards and has been honored with many business and leadership awards.

FULL BIO

Derek Dickow connects people with opportunity. Derek is a world-class networker known for facilitating high potential introductions. He is a passionate fundraiser, raising millions of dollars for people, projects, political campaigns and charities he's passionate about.

Today, Derek serves as the founder and president of Steward Media, an event management, fundraising, and political relations firm promoting best-in-class people, organizations and events. Clients include elected leaders, CEOs and some of the most innovative thinkers.

Derek is a highly sought-after professional keynote speaker, sharing his expertise on power connections and his "5 Pillars of Purpose-Driven Networking." Derek serves on several boards and has been honored with many business and leadership awards.

While he is based in Southeast Michigan, Derek's connections and engagements take him all around the country. Whether he's speaking in Detroit or Miami, he always strikes a chord with his audience. Derek's local accolades include being recognized as part of Oakland County Executive's Elite 40 Under 40 and DBusiness Magazine's 30 in Their Thirties.